At The Dockyard we pride ourselves in our offerings of the finest craft beers going.

Wheats to porters; session IPA's to red ales; sours to imperial stouts; blondes to rye ales;

Our four guest cask and seven guest keg lines bring you what we believe to be the best beers available.

Ask a member of staff for a sample of something a bit different!

Bottles & Cans

Everyone loves a good beer and these days it seems every man and his dog is brewing it. We'd love to be able to say that we've travelled the world and sampled every kind of beer under the sun and come home full of inspiration, because that sounds like a dream come true, but we haven't.

What we have done is hand select beers from around the world that are available in cans and bottles in order to offer them to you. A fair bit of sampling went into preparing this list, so we know a good beer.

Let us know what you're after!

We also have a few off-menu seasonal and one-off brewed items. Just ask!

Did you know?

The White House brews its own beer!

In 2012, Barack Obama brought home a brewing kit. Together with some home brewers on his staff, they brewed the White House Honey Brown Ale!

IPA

The India Pale Ale has been at the forefront of the craft beer revolution. Harking back to the 18th century when beers had to have extra hops added in order to survive the long sea journey to colonial India. People these days have fallen in love with their versatility and wide variety of sub-styles – from session IPA (basically a lower ABV) to New England IPA (created originally by brewers in Vermont, USA).

We recommend

BELGIAN

Before chocolate, waffles and Kevin de Bruyne came beer.

“Beer culture in Belgium combines know-how concerning nature, social practices and craft skills that constitute an integral part of daily and festive life.”

So basically, Belgians live and breathe beer (not literally – no one can breathe beer. I tried once.)

Belgian beers are known for being as complex as they are strong. They brew some of the widest varieties of beer known to man – even the monks brew in Belgium!

We recommend

What does it all mean?

VS (Very Special/Superior) – aged for at least two years

VSOP (Very Special/Superior Old Pale) aged for at least four years

XO (Extra Old) – aged for at least ten years

Don't get confused over the spelling of whiskey/whisky. We've put together this handy little map so you can get it right wherever you are in the world.

If you're still finding it stressful, we've found the best fall back plan is always to just drink it.
